UNISYS CORPORATION

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD APRIL 28, 1994

The 1994 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Unisys Corporation ("Unisys") will be held at the Philadelphia Civic Center, 34th and Civic Center Boulevard, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on Thursday, April 28, 1994, at 9:30 a.m. for the following purposes:

1. to elect four directors of Unisys;
2. to consider and vote upon a proposal to ratify the selection of independent auditors for 1994; and
3. to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Only holders of Unisys Common Stock of record at the close of business on February 28, 1994 will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. For a period of ten days prior to the Annual Meeting, a complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting will be open to the examination of any stockholder during ordinary business hours at the offices of Unisys at Township Line and Union Meeting Roads, Blue Bell, Pennsylvania.

A ticket is required for admission to the meeting. If you plan to attend and you are a stockholder of record (or if you have shares of Unisys Common Stock credited to your account in a Unisys savings plan), please mark the appropriate oval on the enclosed proxy card, and we will send you a ticket. If your shares are held in the name of a broker or other nominee, you must bring proof of ownership (e.g., broker's statement) to be admitted to the meeting.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

/S/ BOBETTE JONES

 Bobette Jones
 Corporate Secretary

Blue Bell, Pennsylvania
 March 17, 1994

IMPORTANT

STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO COMPLETE AND MAIL THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD PROMPTLY WHETHER OR NOT THEY PLAN TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING. THE ENCLOSED RETURN ENVELOPE REQUIRES NO POSTAGE IF MAILED IN THE U.S.A. STOCKHOLDERS OF RECORD ATTENDING THE MEETING MAY PERSONALLY VOTE ON ALL MATTERS WHICH ARE CONSIDERED, IN WHICH CASE THEIR SIGNED PROXIES ARE REVOKED.

UNISYS CORPORATION
PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE
1994 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Unisys Corporation ("Unisys") for the 1994 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on April 28, 1994 and at any adjournment(s) thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). Action will be taken at the Annual Meeting with respect to the election of directors and the ratification of the selection of independent auditors.

As of February 28, 1994, the record date for the Annual Meeting, there were 170,533,382 shares of Unisys Common Stock outstanding and entitled to be voted at the meeting. Each such share is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted upon. A majority of such shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the meeting. Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. Approval of the other matter scheduled to come before the Annual Meeting will require the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present, in person or represented by proxy, at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon. For purposes of determining whether a matter has received a majority vote, abstentions will be included in the vote totals, with the result that an abstention has the same effect as a negative vote. If brokers are prohibited from exercising discretionary authority for beneficial owners who have not returned a proxy (so-called "broker non-votes"), those shares will not be included in the vote totals and therefore will have no effect on the vote.

If the enclosed proxy/voting instruction card is properly executed, returned and not revoked, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the directions set forth thereon. If a properly executed proxy gives no directions, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted FOR the election of directors (Item 1), FOR the selection of independent auditors (Item 2) and in the discretion of the proxy holders on any other matters that properly come before the Annual Meeting. Any person executing a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by giving notice in writing to the Corporate Secretary of Unisys or by voting in person at the meeting.

The enclosed proxy/voting instruction card also serves as a voting instruction to the trustee of the Unisys Savings Plan and the Unisys Retirement Investment Plan (collectively, the "Savings Plans"), for any whole shares of Unisys Common Stock credited to the account of each participant in the Savings Plans as of December 31, 1993. The trustee will vote shares credited to each participant who returns the proxy/voting instruction card in a timely manner, signed and with a clear designation as to how the trustee should vote. If a participant's signed proxy/voting instruction card is not received by April 22, 1994, or if no instruction is given with respect to the matters to be voted upon, the shares credited to that participant will be voted by the trustee in the same proportion as are those shares for which proper instructions were received from other participants.

This Proxy Statement, the accompanying form of proxy and the annual report of Unisys, including financial statements for the year 1993, are first being mailed on or about March 17, 1994.

The principal executive offices of Unisys are located at Township Line and Union Meeting Roads, Blue Bell, Pennsylvania 19424.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS
(ITEM 1)

The Board of Directors is currently comprised of 11 members, divided into three classes. One class of directors is elected each year to hold office for a three-year term and until their successors are chosen and have qualified. Four directors whose terms expire in 1994, Gail D. Fosler, Melvin R. Goodes, Edwin A. Huston and Robert McClements, Jr., have been nominated for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. William G. Milliken will retire as a director on April 28, 1994 and therefore is not a nominee for reelection. The remaining six directors will continue to serve as set forth below. Each of the nominees has agreed to serve as a director if elected, and Unisys believes that each nominee will be available to serve. However, the proxy holders have discretionary authority to cast votes for the election of a substitute should any nominee not be available to serve as a director.

INFORMATION REGARDING NOMINEES AND DIRECTORS

The names and ages of the directors and nominees, their principal occupations or employment during the past five years and other data regarding them is set forth below.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Board of Directors held nine meetings in 1993. During 1993, all directors attended at least 75 percent of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board of Directors and standing committees on which they served.

COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has standing Audit, Compensation and Organization, and Nominating Committees as well as certain other committees.

The Audit Committee held four meetings in 1993. Its principal functions are to review compliance with Unisys policies, review the internal control procedures of Unisys, recommend to the Board of Directors the firm of independent auditors to serve Unisys each fiscal year, review the scope, fees and results of the audit by the independent auditors and review the internal audit organization and annual audit plan. The members of the Audit Committee are Ms. Fosler and Messrs. Duderstadt, Huston, McClements and Milliken.

The Compensation and Organization Committee held seven meetings in 1993. Its principal functions are to review and approve remuneration of the elected officers of Unisys, evaluate performance, review and approve senior executive compensation programs, administer remuneration plans, including the long-term incentive and variable compensation plans of Unisys, and review management succession and related matters. The members of the Compensation and Organization Committee are Messrs. Goodes, Macke, Schwartz and Seibert.

The Nominating Committee held two meetings in 1993. All directors other than Mr. Unruh are members of the Nominating Committee. The principal functions of the Nominating Committee are to identify and review candidates and recommend to the Board of Directors nominees for membership on the Board of Directors. In fulfilling this responsibility, the Nominating Committee will consider recommendations received from stockholders and other qualified sources. Stockholder recommendations must be in writing and addressed to the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, c/o Corporate Secretary, Unisys Corporation, Township Line and Union Meeting Roads, Blue Bell, Pennsylvania 19424. If a stockholder intends to make a nomination at an Annual Meeting, the Bylaws of Unisys require that the stockholder deliver a notice to Unisys not less than 90 days prior to such Annual Meeting setting forth (i) the name, age, business and residence addresses of each nominee, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of each nominee, (iii) the number of shares of capital stock of Unisys beneficially owned by each nominee, (iv) a statement that the nominee is willing to be nominated and (v) such other information concerning each nominee as would be required, under the rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such nominee.

The Board has also designated as standing committees a Finance Committee, a Pension Investment Committee and a Corporate Responsibility Committee and may establish other committees from time to time.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS
(ITEM 2)

The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee, has selected the firm of Ernst & Young as independent auditors to audit the books and accounts of Unisys, including its worldwide subsidiaries, for the year ending December 31, 1994, and recommends ratification of such selection by the stockholders. Ernst & Young has served as independent auditors for Unisys since the merger of Burroughs Corporation and Sperry Corporation in 1986, having previously served in that capacity for Sperry Corporation. Its representatives will be present at the Annual Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and to respond to appropriate questions asked by stockholders.

In the event the proposal to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young is defeated, the adverse vote will be considered as a direction to the Board of Directors to select other independent auditors for the next year. However, because of the expense and difficulty in changing independent auditors after the beginning of a year, the Board of Directors intends to allow the appointment for 1994 to stand unless the Board of Directors finds other reasons for making a change.

In connection with the year ended December 31, 1993, Ernst & Young furnished, or is furnishing, worldwide audit services and certain non-audit services to Unisys. Significant items have been reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. Fees incurred, or to be incurred, in connection with the audit or with the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 1993, and other services aggregated approximately $5.2 million.

The Board of Directors considers Ernst & Young to be well qualified to serve as the independent auditors for Unisys.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO RATIFY THE SELECTION OF ERNST & YOUNG AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR 1994. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BE SO VOTED UNLESS STOCKHOLDERS OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THEIR PROXIES.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP BY CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The TCW Group, Inc. (865 South Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, California 90017) has filed a Schedule 13G with the Securities and Exchange Commission dated February 6, 1994 reporting beneficial ownership of 12,692,350 shares (or 7.7%) of Unisys Common Stock. The TCW Group, Inc. has reported sole voting power and sole dispositive power with respect to all such shares.

Shown below is certain information with respect to beneficial ownership of Unisys Common Stock (or Stock Units) and non-voting Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, as of March 1, 1994, of all directors and director nominees individually, as furnished by them, each of the executive officers named on page 8, and all directors and executive officers of Unisys as a group. The percentage of outstanding shares of Unisys capital stock beneficially owned by each director and named executive officer does not exceed one percent of the class so owned. All directors and executive officers as a group beneficially own 1.3% of the shares of Unisys Common Stock deemed outstanding.

* not applicable

- (1) Amounts shown include compensation deferred under the Deferred Compensation Plan for Officers of Unisys Corporation or the Unisys Savings Plan.
- (2) Amounts shown consist of the following: Mr. Millar and Mr. Patton, tax reimbursements in connection with relocations; Mr. Unruh, personal benefits, including an assumed benefit of $24,556 in respect of the interest-free loan described on page 13. No amounts are shown in respect of personal benefits for Mr. Unruh for 1993 or for any of the other Named Officers for 1993 or 1992 because the aggregate amount of such personal benefits did not exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 10% of the total annual salary and bonus of such officer as reported in the above table.
- (3) Although the 1990 Unisys Long-Term Incentive Plan permits grants of restricted stock and free-standing stock appreciation rights and the payment of performance awards, no such grants or payments were made.
- (4) Amounts shown are the dollar value of premiums paid by Unisys for term life insurance.
- (5) Mr. Millar became an executive of Unisys in November, 1992.
- (6) Mr. Patton became an executive of Unisys in July, 1991.

OPTION GRANTS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

The following table sets forth further information on grants of stock options during 1993 to the Named Officers pursuant to the 1990 Unisys Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "1990 Plan"). No stock appreciation rights ("SARs") were granted during 1993.

(1) Illustrates value that might be realized upon exercise of options immediately prior to the expiration of their term, assuming specified compounded rates of appreciation on Unisys Common Stock over the term of the options. Assumed rates of appreciation are not necessarily indicative of future stock performance.

(2) All options granted to the Named Officers in 1993 were granted on April 28, 1993. Options become exercisable with respect to 25% of the shares covered thereby on each of April 28, 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997. Options become immediately exercisable in the event of a change in control (as defined in the 1990 Plan).

(3) The exercise price per share is the fair market value (calculated as the average of the high and low sales prices reported on the Composite Tape for New York Stock Exchange Listed Companies) of a share of Unisys Common Stock on the date of grant. Options may be exercised with cash and/or with other shares of Unisys Common Stock or with any other form of consideration permitted by the Compensation and Organization Committee.

(4) The options were granted for a term of ten years, subject to earlier termination in certain events related to termination of employment.

OPTION EXERCISES AND FISCAL YEAR-END VALUES

The following table sets forth information with respect to (i) stock option exercises by the Named Officers during 1993 and (ii) unexercised stock options and SARs held by the Named Officers at December 31, 1993.

(1) Difference between the fair market value (the average of the high and low sales prices reported on the Composite Tape for New York Stock Exchange Listed Companies) of Unisys Common Stock at the date of exercise and the exercise price.

(2) Difference between the fair market value (the average of the high and low sales prices reported on the Composite Tape for New York Stock Exchange Listed Companies) of Unisys Common Stock at December 31, 1993 and the exercise price.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLANS -- AWARDS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

In connection with Unisys announced strategy to grow its information services business, Victor E. Millar, President of the Worldwide Information Services Group of Unisys, received a contingent performance award in 1993 as follows:

NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES, UNITS OR OTHER RIGHTS	PERFORMANCE OR OTHER PERIOD UNTIL MATURATION OR PAYOUT	ESTIMATED FUTURE PAYOUTS UNDER NON-STOCK PRICE-BASED PLANS
			THRESHOLD	TARGET	MAXIMUM
Victor E. Millar.....	n/a	1/1/93-12/31/95	$ 0	$ 480,000	$ 576,000

The actual amount payable to Mr. Millar may range from zero to 120% of the target amount depending upon personal performance and the degree to which the Worldwide Information Services Group achieves predetermined revenue and profit objectives during the performance period. Any award earned will be payable in 1996 and will be based 30% on the assessment, by the Chairman of Unisys, of Mr. Millar's personal performance and 70% on achievement of the revenue and profit objectives. Because Mr. Millar is the elected officer having primary responsibility for the Unisys information services business, he was the only elected officer eligible to receive such a contingent performance award.

PENSION PLANS

The table below shows the annual amounts at age 65 that would be received from the Unisys Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan"), the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "Supplemental Plan") and the Elected Officer Pension Plan (the "Officer Plan").

Final Average Compensation generally corresponds to the amounts shown in the Summary Compensation Table under the headings Salary and Bonus. However, Final Average Compensation is calculated using the individual's highest 60 consecutive months of compensation out of the final 120 months of employment and thus will differ somewhat from the amounts shown in the Summary Compensation Table. Final Average Compensation for the eligible Named Officers as of March 1, 1994 is as follows: J. A. Unruh -- $1,077,400; H. J. Lynch -- $497,200; V. E. Millar -- $576,200; W. B. Patton -- $571,400; G. T. Robson -- $400,900. Full years of credited service under the pension plans for the eligible Named Officers as of March 1, 1994 are as follows: J. A. Unruh -- 13 years; H. J. Lynch -- 3 years; V. E. Millar -- 1 year; W. B. Patton -- 2 years; G. T. Robson -- 11 years.

The Pension Plan and Supplemental Plan generally are available to all employees located in the United States. The Officer Plan is available to certain officers, including the Named Officers, who are participants in the Pension Plan and who satisfy certain minimum service requirements. The aggregate pension amount payable under the Officer Plan is offset by benefits paid under the Pension Plan and the Supplemental Plan. The amounts shown in the table are computed on a single life annuity basis and are subject to a 50% deduction of the participant's primary social security benefit.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Effective July 1, 1991, Unisys entered into a three-year employment agreement with James A. Unruh, covering the terms and conditions of Mr. Unruh's employment as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $650,000, subject to periodic review by the Compensation and Organization Committee, and eligibility for an annual bonus in an amount to be determined by the Compensation and Organization Committee. Mr. Unruh is eligible to participate in the benefit programs generally made available to executive officers and is eligible to receive stock option and other long-term incentive awards under the 1990 Plan. If Mr. Unruh's employment is terminated under certain circumstances, Mr. Unruh will be entitled to receive termination payments equal to 100% of his base salary and bonus (based on the average of his last three annual bonus payments) for the remainder of the term of the agreement (with a minimum of one year's salary plus bonus). He will also be entitled to full vesting in his pension benefit under the Officer Plan, continued medical coverage until age 55 and any postretirement medical and life insurance coverage as is then generally available to officers thereafter, full vesting in outstanding awards under the 1990 Plan and an extension of the repayment period on his home mortgage loan. The agreement provides that under certain circumstances that constitute a "change in control" (generally, the acquisition by any person of the beneficial ownership of 20% or more of Unisys voting securities or a change in the composition of a majority of the Board of Directors), the term of the agreement will be automatically extended for a period of three years from the date of the change in control. Further, under certain circumstances that constitute a "potential change in control" (generally, the acquisition by any person of the beneficial ownership of 9.9% or more of Unisys voting securities or certain agreements or actions which, if consummated, would result in a change in control), the Compensation and Organization Committee, in its discretion, may elect to fund Mr. Unruh's pension benefit through a grantor trust. If an actual change in control occurs, the funding of the trust, if any, will become irrevocable. If an actual change in control occurs and all or any portion of Mr. Unruh's pension benefit has not been funded through the grantor trust, Unisys will pay to Mr. Unruh a single sum cash payment in an amount equal to the present value of that portion of his pension benefit that has not been so funded. Mr. Unruh is also party to a change in control agreement with Unisys, as described on page 13. Under no circumstances will Mr. Unruh receive duplicate payments under the change in control agreement and his employment agreement. Salary and bonus paid to Mr. Unruh pursuant to the agreement in respect of 1993 have been included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 8.

Effective July 1, 1991, Unisys entered into a three-year employment agreement with Reto Braun, formerly President and Chief Operating Officer of Unisys. The agreement provided that if Mr. Braun's employment were terminated under certain circumstances, Mr. Braun would be entitled to receive a termination amount equal to one year's base salary (at the rate in effect on the date of termination) and bonus (based on the average of his last three annual bonus payments). He would also be entitled to full vesting in his pension benefit under the Officer Plan, continued medical coverage until age 55 and any post-retirement medical and life insurance coverage as is then generally available to officers thereafter, full vesting in outstanding awards under the 1990 Plan and an extension of the repayment period on his home mortgage loan. In addition, until Mr. Braun reached age 55, Unisys would continue to make contributions to a Swiss benefit program maintained for him providing for pension, life insurance and disability benefits. In August 1993, the position of President and Chief Operating Officer was eliminated and Mr. Braun's employment terminated. In September 1993, Unisys made a lump-sum termination payment to Mr. Braun under the agreement, calculated as follows: $478,991 by reference to base salary; $386,594 by reference to previous years' bonus amounts; $498,464 in respect of the present value of the remaining three years of required Swiss benefit contributions; and a tax reimbursement of $350,721 with respect to the Swiss benefit amounts.

CHANGE IN CONTROL EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Unisys has entered into change in control employment agreements with its executive officers including the Named Officers. The agreements are intended to retain the services of these executives and provide for continuity of management in the event of any actual or threatened change in control (as defined on page 12). Each agreement has a term ending on the earlier to occur of the third anniversary of the date of such change in control or the executive's normal retirement date under Unisys retirement plans. Unisys may cancel the agreements at any time prior to a potential change in control. These agreements, which are the same for each executive, provide that in the event of a change in control each executive will have specific rights and receive certain benefits. Those benefits include the right to continue in the employ of Unisys during the term, performing such duties as are comparable to those being performed immediately prior to the change in control and at comparable compensation levels. The rights and benefits will continue throughout the term if, after such change in control, either the executive's employment is terminated without cause or the executive terminates employment for certain enumerated reasons, including a significant reduction in the executive's compensation, duties, title or reporting responsibilities or a change in the executive's job location. The executive is under no obligation to mitigate amounts payable under these agreements and, to the extent the executive has a separate employment agreement with Unisys with conflicting provisions, the executive is allowed the greater entitlement.

RETENTION AGREEMENTS

During 1993, all executive officers other than Mr. Unruh and Mr. Braun were parties to retention agreements with Unisys. The agreements, which expired December 31, 1993, provided for the payment of certain termination benefits if the employee's employment terminated during the term of the agreement for reasons other than retirement, death, disability, inadequate performance or cause, or if the employee terminated employment during the term because of a reduction in base pay or target incentive award (unless such reduction was due to inadequate performance or a pay reduction generally applicable to similarly situated employees). Upon such termination of employment, the employee would have become entitled to continuation of base salary and payment of annual incentive award in a minimum amount equal to 50% of the then applicable target for a period of 36 months, immediate vesting of outstanding stock options, restricted stock and contingent performance awards, if any, continued participation in retirement, health and other welfare arrangements (or comparable arrangements) through the salary continuation period and, if applicable, extension of the normal repayment date for corporate home mortgage loans. Termination benefits payable under the retention agreements were to be offset by income assistance payments and any other severance or termination payments made to the employee.

INDEBTEDNESS OF MANAGEMENT

Certain of the current and former executive officers of Unisys have received no-interest loans from Unisys. The loans, which were made in connection with the officer's purchase of a principal residence upon relocation, are generally for a 20-year term (assuming continued employment with Unisys), are evidenced by promissory notes and are secured by second mortgages. The maximum amounts outstanding during the period between January 1, 1993 and March 11, 1994 for each of the following were: R. Braun, $248,000; G. R. Gazerwitz, $260,000; J. F. McHale, $127,500; J. A. Unruh, $620,000. The principal amounts of Mr. Braun's and Mr. Unruh's loans as of March 11, 1994 were $213,000 and $370,000, respectively. With respect to the other officers named above, the amounts outstanding as of March 11, 1994 were the same as the maximum amounts.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

In 1993, non-employee directors of Unisys received a monthly director's fee of $1,250 plus an attendance fee of $750 for each Board of Directors and Committee meeting attended. Each non-employee director also received an annual retainer in January in the form of 300 common stock equivalent units ("Stock Units"). At the election of a director, Board and Committee meeting fees could be paid in the form of Stock Units rather than in cash. The value of each Stock Unit at any point in time is equal to the value of one share of Unisys Common Stock. Stock Units are recorded in a memorandum account maintained for each director. Dividend equivalents, if any, are also credited to the account. A director's Stock Unit account is payable in cash only, upon termination of service. Directors do not have the right to vote with respect to any Stock Units. Directors also have the opportunity to defer until termination of service all or a portion of their cash fees. Any deferred cash amounts, and earnings or losses thereon, are recorded in a memorandum account maintained for each director. The right to receive future payments of Stock Unit accounts and deferred cash accounts is an unsecured claim against the general assets of Unisys. Directors who are employees of Unisys do not receive any cash or Stock Unit fees for their services as directors.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE

COMPENSATION PROGRAM AND POLICIES

The executive compensation program of Unisys is administered by the Compensation and Organization Committee (the "Committee"). The Committee is composed of four outside directors. As part of its duties, the Committee reviews compensation levels of elected officers, evaluates performance and considers management succession and related matters. The Committee also administers the various Unisys incentive plans, including its executive annual variable compensation plan and its long-term incentive plan.

The Unisys executive compensation program is designed to attract and retain executives who will contribute to the long-term success of Unisys, to reward executives for achieving both short-and long-term strategic company goals, to link executive and stockholder interests through equity-based plans and to provide a compensation package that recognizes individual contributions as well as overall business results. As a result, a substantial portion of each executive's total compensation is intended to be variable and to be tied closely to the performance of Unisys and the executive's business unit, as well as the attainment of the executive's individual goals.

Each year the Committee conducts a review of the Unisys executive compensation program. For 1993, this review included a report from an independent compensation consultant which analyzed the elements of the executive compensation program in comparison to executive compensation programs maintained by public corporations that represent Unisys most direct competitors for executive talent. These companies (the "peer companies") consist of the principal companies included in the peer group index in the Performance Graph at page 18 of this Proxy Statement and approximately 20 additional companies in various industries whose annual revenue is comparable to that of Unisys.

The three key components of the Unisys executive compensation program in 1993 were base salary, short-term incentive payments and long-term incentive awards in the form of stock options. Target levels for each of these three elements of compensation were determined with reference to the competitive marketplace, with overall compensation target levels intended to be at approximately the 50th percentile for comparable positions at the peer companies.

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the Internal Revenue Code will limit the ability of a publicly held corporation to deduct compensation in excess of $1 million paid to certain executives. Compensation paid under short-term and long-term incentive plans may be exempt from the deductibility limitations if the plans meet certain criteria. Under transition rules in effect until 1997, stock option grants under the long-term incentive plan of Unisys are not considered compensation subject to the limitations. Unisys has not amended its short-term incentive plan to qualify compensation paid thereunder for the exemption.

Unisys policies with respect to each of the elements of its executive compensation program, as well as the basis for the compensation awarded to Mr. Unruh, are discussed below.

BASE SALARY

Each year the Committee determines a salary range for executive officers. The midpoint of the range for each position is targeted at the 50th percentile for comparable positions at the peer companies. Individual salaries within the range are determined primarily by individual performance, level of responsibility and experience. As a result, the base salary of any executive officer may be set at, above or below the 50th percentile, depending upon individual circumstances.

SHORT-TERM INCENTIVE PAYMENTS

In 1993, the stockholders of Unisys approved the Unisys Executive Annual Variable Compensation Plan. This plan's stated purpose is to motivate and reward elected officers and other key executives for the attainment of individual and/or corporate performance goals. Under the plan, the Committee has the discretion to determine the conditions (including performance objectives) applicable to annual award payments and the amounts of such awards. For 1993, all of the current executive officers of Unisys, other than Mr. Unruh (whose annual incentive compensation is determined in accordance with the employment agreement described below), participated in the plan.

Early in 1993, performance goals were established for each participating executive. The goals took into account, depending on the responsibilities of the individual, one or more of the following: financial performance of Unisys and the executive's business unit (specifically, achievement of pre-established profit, revenue and cash flow objectives); contribution of the relevant business unit to the implementation of Unisys strategic plan; and the achievement, by the executive's business unit, of non-financial goals such as customer satisfaction. Because these goals were tailored to the positions held, they varied from executive to executive. The Committee also considered, with respect to each executive, quality of individual performance and individual skill in fostering effective teamwork both within the executive's business unit and across functions outside the business unit.

Executives participating in the plan were also assigned target award amounts for 1993, which were typically stated as a percentage of salary paid during the year (ranging, in the case of elected officers, from 40% to 70%). Target award amounts were designed to be at approximately the 60th percentile for the peer companies in order to place a greater emphasis on the variable, short-term component of total compensation. Actual awards could range from zero to 150% of target, depending upon the Committee's evaluation of the executive's achievement of his or her goals. Award amounts were in the discretion of the Committee and were not calculated by formula. Although specific weights were not assigned to the various goals or to the factors used to measure financial performance, the size of individual incentive awards for 1993 was highly influenced by the degree to which business unit (in the case of executives having responsibility for a particular business unit) and corporate (with respect to other executives) financial goals were met.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE AWARDS

Under the Unisys 1990 Long-Term Incentive Plan, stock options may be granted to executive officers and other key employees of Unisys. The size of stock option awards is based primarily on the individual's responsibilities and position with the company and, for executive officers other than Mr. Unruh, is intended to be at approximately the 40th percentile for comparable positions at the peer companies. The Committee does not determine the size of such grants by reference to the amount or value of stock options currently held by an executive officer.

Stock options are designed to align the interests of executives with those of stockholders. Stock options are granted with an exercise price equal to the market price of Unisys Common Stock on the date of grant, and current grants vest over four years. This approach is designed to encourage the creation of stockholder value over the long term since no benefit is realized unless the price of the Common Stock rises over a number of years.

As disclosed on page 10, in 1993 Victor E. Millar received a contingent performance award payable in 1996, the amount of which will be based, in large part, on the achievement, by the Worldwide Information Services Group of Unisys, of predetermined revenue and profit goals over a three-year performance period. The award was made in connection with Unisys announced strategy to grow its information services business and was made to Mr. Millar in his capacity as President of the Unisys Worldwide Information Services Group. The contingent performance award is intended to be in addition to the other components of Mr. Millar's compensation, and the target amount of the award was established with a view to making Mr. Millar's overall target compensation comparable to his compensation prior to joining Unisys. Mr. Millar is the elected officer having primary responsibility for the Unisys information services business, and therefore was the only elected officer to receive such a contingent performance award.

COMPENSATION OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Mr. Unruh's compensation for 1993 was determined principally in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement described at page 12. The employment agreement was entered into effective July 1, 1991, and covers the three-year period ending June 30, 1994.

Mr. Unruh's employment agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $650,000 (which was Mr. Unruh's salary from March 1990 to March 1992), subject to periodic review by the Committee. As set forth in the Committee's report for 1992, Mr. Unruh's base salary was increased to $735,000 in March 1992. After taking into account a comparison of base salaries of chief executive officers of the peer companies and in recognition of 1992 financial results (including a return to profitability, a significant increase in cash flow from operations and a substantial decrease in total debt), the Committee increased Mr. Unruh's annual base salary to $780,000 in March 1993. Mr. Unruh's current salary is at approximately the 50th percentile for chief executive officers of the peer companies.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Unruh is eligible for an annual bonus in an amount to be determined by the Committee based upon such factors as the Committee deems appropriate. For 1993, Mr. Unruh's target bonus was 100% of salary paid during the year, subject to a maximum potential amount of 150% of target. No minimum bonus was guaranteed. The target bonus amount is substantially above the 50th percentile for the peer companies and reflects the Committee's decision to emphasize short-term performance as a component of Mr. Unruh's total compensation for 1993.

The percentage of target bonus actually paid to Mr. Unruh was dependent upon the Committee's evaluation of his achievement of goals set at the beginning of 1993. These goals consisted of (1) corporate financial objectives (predetermined levels of profit, revenue and cash flow), (2) predetermined revenue levels in specified lines of business and (3) various non-financial personal and organizational goals. The amount of Mr. Unruh's bonus was not calculated by formula, and specific weights were not assigned to the various goals or to the components of corporate financial objectives. As with the other executive officers, however, the Committee primarily considered performance against financial goals. Based on its overall assessment of Mr. Unruh's performance against these goals, the Committee awarded him a bonus of $800,000, or 103% of target for 1993.

In 1993, Mr. Unruh received options to purchase 200,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $12.00 per share. The size of this grant was set significantly below the 50th percentile for chief executives of the peer companies in order to place Mr. Unruh's total target compensation (salary, bonus and stock options) at or near the 50th percentile.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The members of the Compensation and Organization Committee are Melvin R. Goodes, Kenneth A. Macke, Alan E. Schwartz and Donald V. Seibert. During 1993, the law firm of Honigman Miller Schwartz and Cohn, of which Alan E. Schwartz is a member, provided legal services to Unisys.

STOCK PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on Unisys Common Stock during the five fiscal years ended December 31, 1993 with the cumulative total return on the S&P 500 Index and the S&P Computer Systems Index. The comparison assumes $100 was invested on December 31, 1988 in Unisys Common Stock and in each of such indices and assumes reinvestment of dividends.

GENERAL AND OTHER MATTERS

POLICY ON CONFIDENTIAL VOTING

It is the policy of Unisys that all stockholder proxies, ballots and voting materials that identify the vote of a specific stockholder shall, if requested by that stockholder on such proxy, ballot or materials, be kept permanently confidential and shall not be disclosed to Unisys, its affiliates, directors, officers and employees or to any third parties except as may be required by law, to pursue or defend legal proceedings or to carry out the purpose of, or as permitted by, the policy. Under the policy, vote tabulators and inspectors of election are to be independent parties who are unaffiliated with and are not employees of Unisys. The policy provides that it may, under certain circumstances, be suspended in the event of a proxy solicitation in opposition to a solicitation of management. Unisys may at any time be informed whether or not a particular stockholder has voted. Comments written on proxies or ballots, together with the name and address of the commenting stockholder, will also be made available.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Any stockholder proposal to be considered by Unisys for inclusion in the proxy materials for the 1995 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by Unisys no later than November 17, 1994.

A stockholder proposal on economic conversion was submitted for inclusion in the proxy materials for the 1994 Annual Meeting but was withdrawn by the proponent after discussions with management. Stockholders and employees who would like additional information regarding the Unisys economic conversion strategy, plans and implementation should contact the Corporate Secretary, P.O. Box 500, Township Line and Union Meeting Roads, Blue Bell, PA 19424.

OTHER MATTERS

At the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors knows of no matter other than the matters described herein that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. However, if any other matter shall properly come before the Annual Meeting, the shares represented by the proxies signed and returned by stockholders will, unless stockholders otherwise specify, be voted thereon in the discretion of the persons voting such shares.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by Unisys. Such cost will include charges by brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for forwarding proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of Unisys Common Stock. Solicitation may also be made personally, or by telephone or telegraph, by directors, officers and regular employees of Unisys without additional compensation. In addition, Unisys has retained Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of approximately $12,000, plus expenses.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

/S/ BOBETTE JONES
